

English for Profession and Studies Abroad (L.ZfS.04039)

Course Outline:

This course is especially designed for students who would like to train both their written and oral English skills for their future professional life or for a term abroad. One of the core objectives of this course is to enable students to take part in varying communicative situations such as small talk and socialising, job interviews, business meetings or everyday life. Simultaneously, attendants will obtain the possibility to polish their individual writing styles.

Together we will primarily explore the subsequent topics:

- Telephoning and emailing
- Writing CVs and applications
- Presentation strategies
- Living abroad

Instead of a final exam, students are obliged to give a short presentation and to submit one written assignment.

An assessment test will be conducted during the first lesson. Students need to score at least 50 points to attend the course. All students who took the assessment test already prior to the summer term 2013 and achieved a proper result, do not have to resit it.
